

13TH WEVA
CONGRESS
3-5 October, 2013 • Budapest, Hungary

www.weva2013budapest.com

Principles of the Equine Ophthalmology Pre-congress Course 1-Day Practical Course

Wednesday 2nd October 2013

Large Animal Clinic, Üllő, Dora major, 2225 Hungary

Speakers / Instructors:

Ann Dwyer, DVM, Equine Practitioner, special interest in equine ocular disease; Genesee Valley Equine Clinic, Scottsville, New York, USA

Bernhard M. Spiess, DVM, Professor of Ophthalmology, Dipl. ACVO / ECVO; Zurich University, Switzerland

Program:

7.45-8.20: Registration

8.20-8.30: Course introduction

8.30-9.30: Ocular examination (instrumentation, diagnostic tools and tests)

9.30-10.30: Diagnosis of common eye diseases (a specialist's approach)

Zita Makra

B. Spiess

B. Spiess

10.30-10.50: Coffee Break

10.50-11.35: Ophthalmology for the Equine Road Warrior
(a generalist's approach)

A. Dwyer

11.35-12.20: Case Presentations for Road Warriors

A. Dwyer

12.20-12.30: Questions

12.30-13.30: Lunch

13.30-15.30: Practical sessions on live horses and cadaver heads in two groups with the two instructors, rotation of the groups after coffee break.

13TH WEVA
CONGRESS
3-5 October, 2013 • Budapest, Hungary

www.weva2013budapest.com

With Dr B. Spiess:

- advanced examination of the equine eye with slit lamp, direct and indirect ophthalmoscopy, assessment of vision
- tonometry (Tono-Pen)
- ocular ultrasound (technique and interpretation)
- nerve blocks (auriculopalpebral, frontal, retrobulbar)
- tapping ocular chambers

With Dr A. Dwyer:

- patient restraint and ocular imaging with a digital camera
- placement of SPL catheters and tips for its management in the field
- nasolacrimal duct flushing, subconjunctival injection
- ocular cytology (technique and interpretation)

15.30-16.00: Coffee Break

16.00-18.00: Rotation of the two groups

Positions are limited: max. 25 participants

Language: English

Registration fee: 250 EUR (bus transport from Hotel Novotel to Üllő, meals, abstract are included)

Registration: www.weva2013budapest.com

